March 14, 1977

Honorable Stansfield Turner
Admiral, U.S. Navy
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Stan:

Now that you have been sworn by bell, book, candle and President Carter, I want to congratulate you on becoming DCI. It is an honorable post, and I know you will do it credit.

The years ahead will require much tough sledding in re-building our intelligence capabilities and reaching out for new achievements. I wish you all the luck possible in this formidable and crucially important work. If there is anything at all that I can say or do to help you, please let me know.

Cordially,

Ray S. Cline
Executive Director of Studies
